

From: Jim Stocking
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/23/02 6:00pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I think it is very important to punish Microsoft for blatantly illegal constraint of trade. While I realize the importance of the company, I also was one of those Bell System employees who saw our structure dismantled for a whole lot less reason.

The tentative settlement is laughably easy on Microsoft, and I wonder why a split of the company into three parts: operating systems, software applications, and internet is not in order.

Jim Stocking
1066 Randolph Drive
Yardley PA 19067